

Deniz Belen, MD

He was born in İstanbul, 1961. Dr. Belen graduated from Hacettepe University Medical School in 1985. He served his obligatory governmental duty as GP in eastern part of Türkiye between 1985 and 1987. Dr. Belen completed his neurosurgery residency program at Hacettepe University Neurosurgery Department in 1994. Thereafter he worked as specialist in different educational and research hospitals in Ankara. Between 1999 and 2002 he worked at Harvard University as research fellow in Neurovascular section. Currently he works as chair at Ankara Numune Educational and Research Hospital. His main interests in neurosurgery are intracranial aneurysms, arteriovenous malformations, skull base lesions and brain tumors. Dr. Belen has published 72 SCI and SCI-expanded papers.