

He was born in 23 April 1968 in the city of Sinop-village of Ayancık.

He graduated from boarding school named as Akpınar.

1984-1990, He graduated from Medical School at Ondokuz Mayıs University.

1992, He started residency years in Ondokuz Mayıs university, Department of Neurosurgery.

1997, He graduated.

2000-November- 2001-February He worked in "Japan Fukui Medical University" as Fellow of Prof. Kubota and Handa. He worked of rat common carotid artery anastomosis and rat carotid endarterectomy.

In 2002 He won International Sugita Scholarship and he worked in Nagoya University, Faculty of Medicine, Department of Neurosurgery as a Sugita fellow.

In 2003, He won George Ablin International Fellowship from American Congress of Neurological Surgeons. He worked in Chicago Institute of Neurosurgery and Neuroresearch, and Chicago RUSH Presbyterian St. Luke's Medical Center, Department of Neurosurgery as fellow of Gail Rosseau.

He was successful from European Association of Neurological Surgeons (EANS) writing board examination.

In 2006, He became Associate Professor.

In 2012, He became Professor of Neurosurgery.

In 10 Mart 2012 He became the Chairman of Neurosurgery after retirement of previous chairman Prof. Dr. Fahrettin Çelik.