

Ali Kafadar, MD received his Medical degree from Istanbul University Cerrahpasa Medical Faculty and graduated from the Cerrahpasa Medical Faculty neurosurgery residency program in 1997. He worked between 1995 -1997 and 2006 – 2008 twice in Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz Neurosurgery Department. He completed his military service between 1999 – 2000 in Ankara Etimesgut Airforce Hospital as a neurosurgeon. He attended 4 year courses of the European Association of Neurological Surgeons and completed the European Board Examination in 2001. He received his associated professor degree in 2007. Dr. Kafadar is also serving in the Department of Medical Education in Cerrahpasa Medical Faculty since 2010. He now serves as an associated professor of neurosurgery in Cerrahpasa Medical Faculty Department of Neurosurgery. His main areas of interest include neuro-oncology, pediatric neurosurgery, hydrocephalus and endoscopic neurosurgery.